

((the miracle of god said's word))

This sentence had repeated at 21 surahs and 46 times at quran.

Tip1: now our research is based on uthman taha's written .it's not based on reading mode. Despite everywhere the word (said= قال) may have been with shortened ((A)) address 21/112.

Tip2: because of that before (said= قال) word had came ((F)) letter, it is deleted.

Tip3: it's very necessary that you know if at (11/45) address before the word (said= قال) , didn't come ((F)) letter and (21/112) address was in shape of please, say god statics was wrong.

*if we count all of instances with pronouns after ((رب)) that includes (ك . ي . نا) it is 46 cases. And half of that is 23. And at 26th verse of 23th suras of quran.

*although state of being scattered of pronouns after (رب) in quran , if we subtract pronouns after (رب) all of them are 34 and half of that is 17 and each both side of (23/26) we have 17 (قال رب) also toward to beginning and also toward to end of quran.

*at 23 first case of this sentences there are 4 (ك) pronoun after (رب) and at 23 last case of this sentences there are 2 times.

*if we sentence of (قال رب) of course with it's pronouns we find 11 instance that (21/112) is only case that it is written in shape of (قال) but we read (قال) and there are 5 case of this at both side of quran that there is (قال) word with (ك . ي . نا) pronouns.
